

Soroptimist International of Devonport TasTAFE Scholarship Application Form

Soroptimist International is a global organisation for women committed to advancing human rights and the status of women, where women and girls can achieve their individual and collective potential in strong and peaceful communities.

The Soroptimist Club of Devonport is offering a scholarship to at least one female student who has returned to study and is currently continuing with their studies at the TasTAFE Devonport Campus.

The value of these scholarships is $500 each, to assist students with the cost of their courses.

The criteria for the scholarship:

- Current female TasTAFE student who will be continuing with their studies.
- Studying at the Devonport Campus.
- Working towards a whole qualification.
- Able to demonstrate a determination to overcome any obstacles to succeed.
- Able to demonstrate existing commitment in their chosen field of study and/or how their study is/will enable them to make a difference in their chosen field.
- Able to demonstrate a broader community involvement in a voluntary capacity.
- Be willing to attend a Soroptimist meeting to accept their scholarship and speak briefly about themselves, (eg: studies, ambitions, what the scholarship means to them).
- Be willing to provide a report to the club on their progress and results of their studies at the end of the year.
- Able to explain how the scholarship will assist financially with their studies.
- Is not a recipient of any other awards or scholarships in the past twelve months.
